2. Ethics and recommendations

- Mandatory ethics approvals are fully reported
- SI units are used
- IUPAC and IUBMB guidelines are implemented
- MitoEAGLE recommendations on terms and symbols are implemented, to facilitate use of data in a database

3. Format

- Abstract of standard length—or the extended abstract—is submitted as a text file
- The complete manuscript with embedded high-quality figures and tables is submitted as a pdf file, avoiding oversized files
- Supplements are submitted as separate files, avoiding oversized files
- A data repository for original data and traceability is provided
- Present tools are not available for a data repository. When corresponding data management tools become available, a data repository will be published
- Redundant duplication is avoided of text and figures from previous publications or from the internet

Optional:

- We (authors) invite readers and members of the 'Scientific advisory board' to a scientific discussion which may be published as a supplement in follow-up versions.
- We suggest members of the 'Scientific advisory board' to engage in a scientific discussion even prior to posting a first preprint version.
